1st Lt. Mohamed Ali Bu Afra AlMazrouei

Professional Summary:

Commissioned officer from the Royal Military Academy Sand Hurst in 2020, with experience in Joint Fires and currently serving in the Mountain Infantry Battalion. Proven leader, experienced in research and mission execution, with a focus on innovation and foresight.

Professional Experience:

First Command (2020 – Late 2023)

- Served as a JTAC in the artillery.
- Put in command of a joint fires team.
- Participated in Exercises Rabdan Dilmun.

Second Command (Late 2023 – Present)

- Currently a Platoon leader in the 11th Mountain Infantry Battalion.
- Contributed research on the role of infantry in the age of artificial intelligence.

Deployments and Domestic Missions

- Task force 318(Yemen)
- Task force 337(Somalia)

Training & Skills:

- Trained in the UK at Sandhurst and U.S.at Fort Banning.
- Exposed to international military procedures and cross-cultural collaboration.
- Strong forward planner, proactive problem-solver, and comfortable with long hours.
- Came First on 2nd level mountain warfare course.

Additional Facts:

Avid reader, climber, and always driven to meet the commander’s intent in every task.