Mohammed S. Alkaabi

Accounting, Finance | Sharjah, United Arab Emirates | +971 50 80 55 434 |
mohdelkaabi@gmail.com

Summary:

A finance and accounting specialist with hands-on experience in the UAE government sector. Proven ability to develop financial systems and procedures, achieving effective results in dynamic work environments. Focused on accomplishing organizational objectives efficiently, with a continuous pursuit of professional development aligned with best modern practices.

Education

- Degree: Bachelor of Science in Finance and Accounting
- Institution: University of Sharjah, Sharjah, United Arab Emirates
- Graduation Date: June 2020
- Relevant Courses: Financial Analysis, Accounting Principles, Corporate Finance.

Work Experience:

- Financial Officer / Accounting Officer 2021 – Present

Employer: General Command of the Armed Forces / Ministry of Defence – Academic Department.

- Handled financial affairs of students.
- coordinated with educational institutions.
- managed budgets and billing.
- prepared financial reports, and supervised accounts.

- Officer Candidate 2020 – End of 2021

Employer: General Command of the Armed Forces / Ministry of Defence – Recruitment Department.

- Assessed the status of high school graduates for National Service.
- Recruited personnel, entered data, and assisted visitors.

Skills:

- Experience in managing financial departments and supervising multidisciplinary teams to achieve organizational objectives.
- Proficient in handling financial systems, preparing budgets, analysing financial data, and ensuring compliance with policies and regulations.
- Advanced proficiency in Microsoft Office applications such as Excel, Word, PowerPoint, Outlook, Access, OneNote, Teams, and SharePoint, in addition to experience with financial resource management systems.
- Involved in streamlining processes by integrating internal systems with the central financial system to support digital transformation and reduce paper usage.
- Effective communication skills with experience in coordinating between academic institutions, government bodies, and internal departments.
- Strong problem-solving abilities and delivering sustainable and efficient solutions within a professional environment.
- Fluent in Arabic and a good command of English with a strong willingness to improve.
- Experienced in preparing and reviewing tax invoices and applying auditing principles in financial operations.
- Quick adaptability to new technologies and systems, contributing actively to digital transformation initiatives.
- Strong willingness and capability to learn new software and keep up with future developments in the professional field.
- Received high performance evaluations during my tenure, effectively managing the financial department and staff efficiently, despite being new to the profession, and contributing to improving departmental procedures and workflows.
- Regularly follow local and global articles related to professional fields, with a strong understanding of future job trends and government and leadership directions.
- Personal interest in leadership and teamwork, continuously developing these skills through participation in sports and cultural activities.